

Dear friend of Bristol–Bordeaux

We are writing to invite you to our next event, celebrating the 70th anniversary of both the Bristol–Bordeaux and Bristol–Hannover twinnings.

On Friday 23rd June 2017, there is to be a party at Bristol Zoo Gardens from 6–9pm, with live music performed on the theatre terrace, talks about the animals – including one on lemurs by a representative from Hannover Zoo – and addresses by Marvin Rees and the mayors of Bordeaux and Hannover.

Free tickets are available, but these are limited and are being distributed, under the Zoo staff's instructions, to specific groups in the city, amongst whom are the supporters of the Bristol–Bordeaux and Bristol–Hannover twinnings.

If you have not yet acquired tickets via Eventbrite in the first distribution, and would like to come, could you please let Vivien Brown know at :-

Everybody, including small children, needs a ticket, due to the Zoo's licensing restrictions.

We do hope you may be interested in attending this event and look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes
